Icy patches, with snow mainly on higher level routes, may cause tricky travel

What to expect

- Some roads and railways are likely to be affected with longer journey times
- Icy surfaces may make accidents and falls more likely.

Further details

A spell of rain and hill snow is likely to affect many areas, with skies clearing at times to allow icy surfaces, although these won't affect all places. The snow is most likely above 200 metres elevation and probably focused in the north Pennines and into parts of Scotland; here it could affect a few lower lying areas.
